Build in our new stainless steel dispenser to create your own special environment...

enMotion®
Recessed Stainless Steel Backplate & Bin

For an even more elegant solution, you can build in our new enMotion stainless steel dispenser so that it truly becomes part of your overall washroom design.

- Your visitors and guests will be impressed by the streamlined, contemporary design.
- The new recessed enMotion stainless steel dispenser provides an attractive yet practical way to complement the look of your establishment.
- Building in further minimizes the risk of damage from rough handling and reduces space.

...with a range of accessories to match.

We offer a range of matching accessories for our new enMotion stainless steel dispenser:

- An optional recessed Backplate & Bin so you can build in the enMotion recessed dispenser. The combined hygienic backplate and high capacity bin saves labour and gives a gleaming, stylish effect.
- A stainless steel Wall Mount Kit is available so you can wall mount the enMotion recessed dispenser instead of building in.
- A specially-designed AC Power Kit allows you to use main electricity instead of batteries.
